Why establish GULL?

The majority of the world's population can only dream about access to education.

For those who aspire to develop themselves without pre-qualification (from school or college) or the means of paying fees and related study costs, the barriers to entry are beyond their means.

Lifelong Learning

And for those in work roles

GULL encourages professional excellence ...

GULL's mandate

The University's mandate to confer professional awards is based on recognition in perpetuity by the Government of Papua New Guinea and a growing body of endorsements by other Governments, Leaders and Institutions.

Multiple endorsements enable us to contextualize a global system in any community or workplace setting.

Web of support:

Learning coach
Project teams
Specialist advisers
Colleagues
Friends & family
Others ...

Practical, professional learning outcomes

GULL recognizes and certifies the evidence of learning and application. This arises as participants use and apply action learning and then cascade their experience to others.

The evidence typically relates to change, impact and transformation and the objective is to enable participants and other stakeholders in the learning process to advance and improve.
